

March 2, 2015

Dear Colleague,

We invite you to apply to attend the first BYU New Testament Commentary Series Summer Seminar to be held for five weeks from June 29-July 31, 2015 on BYU Campus, Provo, Utah.

Participants in this seminar will have opportunities to

- Consult together about recent New Testament scholarship
- Help with final editing of the Commentary on 1 Corinthians
- Work closely with Eric Huntsman on the Gospel of John
- Research various topics with Michael Rhodes and Richard Draper on Hebrews
- Add to the translation and commentary on 1 and 2 Peter with Jack Welch
- Delve into relevant subjects of particular interest
- Engage in potentially ground-breaking discussions and discoveries

Work products that will result from this seminar will include

- Greek word studies
- Textual, contextual, intertextual, and translation notes
- Analytical commentaries on chapters or sections
- Short excurses or methodological comments

A stipend of $2500 and a modest housing subsidy of $400 for single or $600 for family housing will be paid. Ample housing is inexpensively available in Provo during the summer term.

Please send application materials (see below) to jennifer\_hurlbut@byu.edu by March 31, 2015. If you have questions contact any member of the committee listed below or Jacob Rennaker jacobrennaker@gmail.com who will assist with administration of this seminar.

We invite you to share the attached flyer with interested colleagues

Sincerely,

The New Testament Commentary Series Editorial Committee

S Kent Brown
Richard D. Draper
Kaye Terry Hanson

Eric Huntsman
Michael D. Rhodes
Brent D. Schmidt

Andrew C. Skinner
Julie M. Smith
John W. Welch

- A full current CV
- A writing sample relating to scripture research
- A 250+ word essay explaining your interest in this seminar and how your training and background qualify you to contribute to scholarly LDS work on the New Testament.